CAMP STANISLAUS OPENS WITH REGISTRATION OF SEVENTY-FIVE CAMPERS

President Bro. Peter Director of Camp—Has staff of Fourteen Men—Number of Boys Divided into Four Groups, According to Ages.

Camp Stanislaus, at Stanislaus College, Bay St. Louis, opened Sunday under the most favorable auspices.

Seventy-five boys were enrolled for the opening, hailing principally from Louisiana and Mississippi. However, several outside sections are represented. For instance, Beaumont, Texas, Oklahoma and Brunswick, Ga. New Orleans and the parishes of Louisiana as well as Mississippi represent the bulk.

Camp Stanislaus is under the personal direction of Bro. Peter, with a staff of fourteen men who are assistants and counselors. The number of boys attending is divided into four groups, Group No. 1 boys from 8 to 9 years. Group 2 from 10 to 11 years. Group 3 from 12 to 14 years and Group 4 includes all boys above 14 years old.

The camp is divided into periods of time. There is a three-week camp and a five-week camp. The very best of attention is given the boys individually and plenty of wholesome food is served, including milk and cream from the college dairy. There is also a study and instruction period. The charge is $15.00 per week.

Camp activities include swimming, fishing, sailing, hiking, softball, billiards, tennis, boating. There are three camp boats, one sloop and another boat is expected daily to arrive from Pascagoula where it was built.

Seventy-five registrants is almost double the number of last year's enrollment and speaks well for the growing popularity and success of Camp Stanislaus. Bro. Peter, director, expressed satisfaction at results and says the progress of the boys and the happiness of their camp life is most gratifying.

ST. MARGARET'S DAUGHTERS CARD PARTY.

St. Margaret's Daughters entertained at a card party last Wednesday. The high scorers were for bridge, Miss Bessie Murtagh, Mrs. J. W. Jacobs and Mrs. Gus Temple.

At the po-keno were Miss Potts, Mrs. T. Smith, consolation Mrs. Albert Wetzel. The cake was drawn by Mrs. Theo. Tudury, entrance prize by Mrs. Chas. Carter.

W. A. CUEVAS, FORMER LUMBERMAN OF FENTON, DIES AT GULFPORT, MISS.

Was Brother of Mrs. A. A. Kergosien and Victor C. Cuevas of Bay St. Louis—Survived by Wife and Son And Daughter—Long Prominent in Business Affairs.

W. A. Cuevas, perhaps better known by his intimate friends as "Willie" Cuevas, native of Hancock county, died at his residence in Gulfport at an early hour Thursday morning of this week, after an illness extending over almost period, but more acutely the past two years.

Mr. Cuevas was in his early sixties. He had been prominently identified with the timber and lumber industry in Hancock county for many years, located at Fenton, and was known over a wide area of territory. During his earlier years he had traveled extensively for the Monteleone Hotel, New Orleans, and in this wise, he had built a long list of acquaintances.

Firing his, even though he had achieved success in this pursuit, he returned to his native land and entered the lumber business and general mercantile store in connection thereto. A man of marked ability and dominant energy, he rapidly rose until he took his place in the fore ranks of business.

Some years back, having realized his fondest dreams of success, and desirous of retiring in order he may live in the bosom of his family and enjoy life in later years, he sold his holdings and moved to Pass Christian, where he built an ideal home—a house with every modern equipment and one designed for comfort. A man of a hospitable nature, he also built in that manner

NICHOLAS BAUER TO ADDRESS

Bay St. Louis Rotary Club At Inter-City Meet With Pass Christian, Tuesday, 27.

Nicholas Bauer, superintendent public schools at New Orleans, and one of the foremost educators in the South, will be the guest speaker on Tuesday night of next week at the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club annual meeting when the ceremonies incidental to installing officers for the new year will take place.

Pass Christian Club will join the Bay in an inter-city meeting and the affair promises to be one of outstanding interest and pleasure.

Mr. Bauer, while in Bay St. Louis for the summer and on an absolute vacation, kindly consented to speak and accepted the invitation in a manner that made his acceptance doubly pleasing. It will be remembered he addressed the Bay club on a similar occasion some years ago and his happy and delightful address is still remembered by those whose good fortune it was to be present. And it is with anticipation the club and its friends will greet him again.

The Pass Christian club always rallies almost to a man at the Bay St. Louis meeting, always co-operating to the fullest extent and adding to the program exemplifying well the spirit of friendship and of ways willing to do its share, if not more.

President Rene de Montluzin will be succeeded by Vice President Jesse W. Gray who will carry on the fine administration of the retiring executive head.

The banquet and program will be held at Hotel Reed.

SERIES OF 4-H CLUB MEETINGS IN COUNTY SUCCESSFUL

Demonstration Club Organized at Flat Top—Program Planning Meeting at Kiln Today

The series of 4-H Club meetings which were held the past week were a big success. They were well attended and enjoyed. The all-day meeting consisted of songs, games, hike and short discussions on rules of etiquette.

A home demonstration club was organized at Flat Top Friday, June 9, with 2 ladies present. The ladies appointed Mrs. Sam Martin temporary chairman until the members felt they were amply ready to organize with regular elected officers. Mrs. Lindsey district agent, attended the meeting, and explained home demonstration work and how it should function, and also gave a very interesting and inspirational talk. The ladies adjourned after planning to have the leaders training meeting in their community, and after appointing definite members to bring the vegetables to be canned at this demonstration. Miss Peters again announces the program planning meeting to be held at Kiln School, June 16th, at 7:30 P. M. All interested in the welfare of the county are invited. The leaders training meeting will be held at Flat Top lunchroom, Thursday, June 22.

CITY GAS PROMISED JUNE 27.

Not Later Than July 1—Municipality Ready to Service Public With Utility.

The Echo is authoritatively informed at the City Hall that gas service for Bay St. Louis will be turned on to the public and for their use between June 27 and July 1st, positively and beginning as of July 1st.

This is quite a bit of interesting information inasmuch as the public will be agreeably surprised to realize how quickly the work of installing municipal gas for domestic and industrial use was carried on to successful completion. The Littrell Construction Company having the contract, has lost no time and have done a pretty big job in a comparative short time, in fact, long before schedule time. This brings to a reality a long cherished dream for Bay St. Louis and to our municipality and to the administration belongs the credit. It seems like bringing a matter of seeming impossibility into fact.

Because of our geographical position, cut off as we are from the center of things, it has been said it would be impractical to bring gas service to our midst. But these obstacles, that appeared so serious and overcoming them so doubtful, have been surmounted and the people of this city are at last to be serviced with gas.

Millard E. Toulme has been appointed as meter reader, and in charge of this branch of the set-up while the city office, with W. L. Bourgeois, collector of taxes, payments will be made month to month—just as we pay our electric light bills.

The value of gas for the home cannot be overestimated and we hope our enterprising and progressive city will reap handsomely from its investment for the people and their good.

HANCOCK CO. LIBRARY RECEIVES NEW BOOKS FROM CARNEGIE FUND

Four Outstanding Books With Maximum Appeal—Four New Books Free Of Charge to Read.

Hancock County Library has just received four new books from the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

"The Spirit of India," by W. J. Grant is far more than a travel book. It is alive with human interest story. The author, an Englishman, has traveled all over the country of which he writes and knows not only the country but the people as well.

"Lake of the Royal Crocodiles" by Eileen Bigland tells of journeying through Central Africa and of the native of Northern Rhodesia along the lovely slopes of the Lake of Shiva Uganda—The Lake of the Crocodiles. This is a charming and amusing book.

"Reaching for the Stars" by Nora Waln. Need we tell you of this book? We can say that all the reading world is reading it and talking it. It is an interesting account of four years in Hitler's Germany.

"Call to Reason" by Axel Wenner-Gren. This book, written by a native of Sweden, deals with the questions we are asking as to democracy as contrasted with fascism, communism and nazism. If you don't read the book do read chapter 16. "There is no rental charge on these books. Read them—free of charge. The library wants you to enjoy them."

Many thanks to Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Carl Marshall, and Mrs. Spence for magazines.

The library is teeming with activity since the return of summer readers. The library is always so glad to see them and appreciates their patronage.

GOVERNOR WHITE IS PLEASED WITH KANSAS AFFAIR

Wichita Reception Held Greatest Event Accorded Him.

Governor Hugh White, home from an address before the Kansas State Chamber of Commerce, said the reception accorded him at Wichita was the "greatest since I've been governor."

The chief executive, in his talk Friday night, criticized administration of the Wage-Hour law and suggested unification of southern and western forces to bring "re-establishment of our nation as an economic as well as political democracy."

Mississippi's chief said Gov. Payne Ratner of Kansas had accepted immediately an invitation to speak in Jackson and that his address would be scheduled by Mississippi officials for September.

Members of the Kansas State Chamber of Commerce, he added, hope to accompany their governor to this state in a special train.

"That's as live a chamber of commerce as I've seen in many, many years," Governor White declared today, "I think they are going places."

The governor said copies of his speech were being mailed all members of congress from southern and western states and that the address would be published in pamphlet form for general distribution.

HANCOCK RED CROSS STUDENTS AT COAST CAMP RETURN HOME

Period Spent at Camp Kittiwake Gives 10-day Course in First Aid and Life Saving—Training Instructors to Carry on Work.

For ten days during this month, Camp Kittiwake, just east of Pass Christian, was filled to capacity with young men and young women, taking courses in First Aid and Life Saving. Miss Marion Chapman of Bay St. Louis and Mr. James Peterson of Kiln represented Hancock county chapter of American Red Cross. These ten days were all too short for the courses and amount of work to be done in order to get certificates from Washington headquarters.

The director of the school complimented the two students from Hancock county as being most proficient and for leading their classes.

The American Red Cross has selected this means of training in order to have instructors to teach others to swim, thus prevent drowning. These instructors will gladly give lessons free of charge to any one applying.

Miss Chapman told The Echo representative that all were awakened each morning by the bugler, who

Miss Chapman told The Echo representative that all were awakened each morning by the bugler, who

Milton Ivo Philibert, resident of Bay St. Louis for the past several years, died suddenly at 5 minutes past midnight Wednesday morning, succumbing to a heart attack.

A victim of heart ailment for a long time, pensioned by the federal government for a number of years because of this disability, when he was honorably discharged from the army being a World War veteran, it was not surprising when those close to him and acquaintances learned of his sudden death.

Mr. Philibert, because of his heart affection was not able to do much manual labor and for this reason his daily pursuit could only include small and light jobs.

Dr. M. J. Wolfe was immediately summoned to the home and declared him dead and in accordance with the above facts.

Remains were taken in charge by the Fahey Funeral Home and prepared for burial. The P. J. McMahon & Sons funeral home of 4800 Canal street, New Orleans sent a conveyance out from that city to Bay St. Louis for the remains and had charge of the funeral which took place from that firm's mortuary establishment at 9:30 o'clock, Thursday morning, June 22, 1939, with interment in Cypress Grove Cemetery.

The deceased was a native of New Orleans and was in his 44th year. He was a member of the American Legionnaires, members of which organization from New Orleans and Bay St. Louis were invited to attend the funeral.

Mr. Philibert had apparently been feeling well throughout the day, reported his family. However, shortly before his sudden passing he complained of a severe pain in the chest. Soon after he collapsed and died.

He resided with his wife and three young children in a cottage rear of a dwelling belonging to Mrs. A. Battistella, of New Orleans, on South Beach boulevard, near Booker avenue and south of the college building.

He was the husband of Mildred Foster, father of Mrs. Lester Boudreaux, Marceline, Milton Ivo, Jr., and Pappy Philibert of Bay St. Louis, Miss. son of Mrs. F. F. Philibert, and the late F. F. Philibert, brother of Mrs. J. S. Philibert, Mrs. Milton De Reyno, Frank F. J., Punny and Aaron Philibert and the late Mrs. R. S. Browning, Joseph E. and Claude J. Philibert.

Mr. Philibert represented Columbia pictures whenever a royalty or commission feature film was presented at the local theater.

He was an ardent fisherman, this sport a hobby and past-time to the final extent he engaged in it commercially.

The family residing in Bay St. Louis consists of his widow, two young girls and a younger son.

MISSISSIPPI GULF COAST.

MISSISSIPPI Gulf Coast is teeming with visitors and one need not be a close observer to note the fast augmenting number coming to our shores daily to enjoy the gulf breezes, gulf water bathing and the one and many attractions this section has to offer to the vacationist or the season visitor.

Waveland and Bay St. Louis and adjacent territory receive fullest share of the Coast patronage every year. This season is not going to prove the exception.

Many factors contribute to this success. The highway shortcuts leading from New Orleans and our own fine Hancock county highways are important factors, including the recently completed highway thru Mississippi from Memphis down to the Coast and tributaries thereto. The Mississippi Delta section, Jackson, Meridian, Vicksburg all contribute largely to the thousands who visit here during the season.

Louisiana is our greatest source from which we draw. The parishes are contributing largely and the hope is expressed, and there is reason to believe it, this increase will continue thru season and years.

Ours is a God-favored section. Nature has been generous in its gifts and lavish in dispensing the many things to be enjoyed here and not found elsewhere. One need not take long and tiresome trips, journeys that consume time, to reach the Gulf Coast. Our location places the coast in juxtaposition to one of the largest and richest areas in the South.

From now on the crowds will increase rapidly. The many are welcome and we know they will come and find health, pleasure and general enjoyment. If the visitor seeks relaxation it may be had here. If he seeks outdoor activities and social life for the summer he need go no further. It is all here. Anything one may seek for the summer life at its best is in Bay-Waveland and the Mississippi Gulf Coast. It is the land of the heart's desire.

MEXICANS SUSPECT US.

IT IS worth noting, as an instance of the behavior of unlearned people, that when the Mexican aviator, Francisco Sarabia was killed in this country in a fatal crash, a crowd of Mexicans stoned a building in Mexico which housed an American school.

Responsible Mexican officials and the educated class of Mexicans did not participate in the disorder, of course, but the popular suspicion that the Yankees had something to do with Sarabia's catastrophe indicates a distrust of the people of this country that is only explainable by the ignorance of the unintelligent Mexicans.

Let's not laugh too heartily at the foolishness of the Mexicans. There are people in this country who can see a Red every time the bushes move and others who "know" that Great Britain is making the United States do her dirty work in the world. In fact, what the voting population of the United States can be taught to swallow during a Presidential campaign is more than enough to match the ignorance of Mexico.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS DECLINE.

MORE than thirty-two thousand persons lost their lives in motor vehicle accidents during 1938. In addition there were more than a million persons who suffered non-fatal injuries. Altogether the dollar damage from traffic accidents approximated one and a half billion dollars.

In calling attention to these figures the National Safety Council points out that traffic accidents declined during 1938. If they had continued at the rate of former years another seven thousand persons would have been killed during the year.

This decline in traffic accidents in 1938 is contrary to previous experience. For over 30 years, with one exception, there has been an annual increase in traffic deaths, which offset the decline in deaths from occupational, home and other public accidents in the past.

The future looks brighter! The eighteen percent reduction in traffic fatalities makes one realize that attempts to prevent traffic deaths are not in vain. Let the good record continue.

NO PLACE FOR SAINTS.

THE Jackson News says that a candidate over in Rankin county says:

"I have never bought, made, sold or used any form of intoxicating liquor." Then please don't send him to the legislature. He wouldn't feel at home. The lawmaking body is no place for saints, anyway.

Happy is the individual, man or woman, who can look into the past and recall gorgeous memories of unselfish deeds.

There are people in the United States who talk about the payments of war debts and who talk about honor without trying to pay their own debts.

Did you ever hear about the man who knows that advertising does not pay because he spent a few dollars a decade or so ago, without getting a ten to one return?

Those who are interested in the growth of Bay St. Louis, need not expect magical results to follow their wishes; it takes hard work and years to make a town develop.

GUARDING AGAINST THE FIRE MENACE.

EVERY building should be checked at regular intervals for fire hazards. And it is obvious that the checking will be largely useless unless the checker is familiar with at least the more common hazards.

-You, for instance, can adequately inspect your own home if you are armed with a certain amount of simple, non-technical knowledge.

Look at your roof—old or warped roofing easily collects sparks and flying brands. Thoroughly go over your chimneys in search of loose bricks, cracks, or any other failure that might start or encourage a fire.

Keep your yard in clean, trim condition—dry grass, leaves, boards, etc., are readily ignited and are a definite danger to nearby buildings. The same thing is true of garages and sheds—cleanliness and good maintenance go a long way toward preventing fire. Pay special attention to the storage of inflammable materials—liquids such as gasoline and benzine should be kept in tight, metal containers. And remember that explosive liquids should never be used for home cleaning operations.

Accumulations of discarded material—whether old clothes, furniture or magazines—in closets, basement and attic, constitute one of the worst hazards. Oily rags are most dangerous of all, as they are subject to spontaneous combustion.

If you use wood for fuel, pile it neatly. And never mix rags or paper with wood or coal—spontaneous heating may result. The whole heating system should be inspected carefully, and it's wise to hire an expert for this job.

Oil burners should be installed with extreme care and in accord with standard regulations. That is also true of gas appliances. No gas appliance should be used which lacks a thermostat for cutting off the supply in case the pilot light goes out.

If your work room, as many are, is littered and disorderly, you're simply asking for a fire. Keep it neat.

This doesn't exhaust necessary instructions by a long shot—but it shows you where to start. And it's a good idea to do it today.

VISIT THE N. Y. WORLD'S FAIR.

THE story going the rounds and receiving quite a bit of circulation is that of extortion to which visitors to the New York World's Fair are allegedly subjected.

Samples of these stories are varied and many. One will suffice to illustrate, namely, sandwiches on the fair grounds sell for 75 cents each.

Many of the stories are grossly exaggerated. That is the inclination of the mind, rather than to boost and to pass along a good word. How the average person loves to decry, to disparage and to exaggerate a story that smacks of the sensational.

The Echo is informed first hand that tariffs are about normal and that prices at the Fair are no higher than one might expect. Swanky hotels and other places like high class restaurants have advanced rates, but that in the ordinary run of things prices are about normal.

It would be suicide for New York City and the Fair to boost prices to abnormal high level. That would mean ultimate death to the project and no sane person with a grain of reason should and will believe the wild stories that are rampant.

Many from Bay St. Louis and this section will visit the Fair and the great metropolis. To many it will mean their first visit to the wonder city of the world and this alone has its compensating value even though one might not intend to only visit the fair. There is the stop-over in Washington. One may spend weeks here and never tire visiting the federal workshops and the various departments.

Go to the World's Fair. It is educational and one owes that to self to visit a colossal sample of the world's wonders assembled at one place. One may never have the opportunity again.

PRESS ASSOCIATION ADOPTS RESOLUTION.

BEFORE adjourning its annual convention at Gulfport Saturday morning, the Mississippi State Press Association adopted, among other resolutions, the following, which are timely and we hope will correct a practice of abuse that is unfair to the local newspaper and printing plants.

The press is a "good thing" generally for free publicity, but for patronage that seems another story.

Here are the resolutions:

1. Urging federal government to have its printing done in local communities.

2. Asking state and district candidates for public office to give their political printing to small printers and publishers and suggesting that no free publicity be given those failing to comply with the request.

3. Authorizing the association president to appoint a committee to discuss with proper persons cessation of the present practice of selling the printers' product direct to the consumer.

4. Commending the state advertising commission for its fine work during the past two years.

OFFICE OF COUNTY SUPERVISOR.

ONE of the most important offices to fill is that of county supervisor in Mississippi. Men selected to fill this position of trust should meet rigid requirements. He should be a man of responsibility, one who is level headed and able to administer to the affairs of the largest business corporation in the county. He should be an executive, a man capable of coping with the economic problems and to meet them successfully. He should be a man able to work in collaboration with his associates on the board and in that wise get the greatest results by concerted action and united thought. Men who are live, progressive and doing; who enjoy the confidence and respect of the community and who may be depended on in time of crisis.

It is a most important office, handling the affairs and shaping the destinies of the county and voters should be careful and thoughtful in casting their ballot.

CARY GRANT will play the lead in "Passport to Life," the story of a racketeer and a child.

Gloria Dickson is to be the villainess in "On Your Toes."

John Garfield has refused to play in any more prison pictures for the present. He is reported to have told the studio that he would exercise his prerogative to return to the stage if they insisted on assigning him to "Twenty Years in Sing Sing."

A sequel to "Brother Rat" entitled "Brother Rat's Baby" is being prepared. The same cast including Eddie Albert, Wayne Morris, Jane Bryan, Priscilla Lane, Ronald Reagan and Henry O'Neill will be used.

Censors in Mexico City have approved "Confessions of a Nazi Spy," so that opens the way for it to be shown in Latin American countries.

Whitney Bourne is back in pictures again. She will be seen with Madeline Carroll and Joel McCrea in "Safari."

Frederic March and his wife may play the same roles they had in "The American Way" on the Broadway stage, in a screen version by RKO.

After a preview of "Young Mr. Lincoln," the studio became very enthusiastic over Henry Fonda. He is practically certain to get the part of Tom Joad in "Grapes of Wrath."

Martha Raye is reported to be dissatisfied with the pictures she has been getting and at the expiration of her contract it is expected she will leave Paramount.

There is no swimming scene in the stage version of "The Women" but one has been written in for the movie.

Greer Garson, young English girl, who makes such a hit in "Goodbye Mr. Chips," was discovered by Mr. Mayer when he attended a stage performance in London three years ago. He signed her up and she came to America where she sat around doing nothing for a year because the producers could not find a suitable picture for her, or so they said. She had to sail back to England for "Mr. Chips" before she could be seen on the American screen. Miss Garson has beautiful red hair, green eyes, and a marvelously white skin. She will have the lead in "Susan and God," which is one of the most important assignments in Hollywood.

James Hilton, author of "Mr. Chips," wrote the book in five days for a British weekly for the sum of $250. The weekly sold it to the Atlantic Monthly which resulted in fame and fortune for the author.

Walter Wanger is enthusiastic over a new murder mystery he has just purchased. It is the first novel written by F. G. Presnell and is entitled "Send Another Coffin."

Myrna Loy posed for a statue entitled "Ambition" fifteen years ago for the Venice High School. She has now been requested to pose again for one to be called "Fruition of Ambition."

Cecil B. DeMille had Joel McCrea under contract for $50 a week and let him go. McCrea now gets $100,000 a picture and is under contract to make two pictures a year.

A new film team is that of Frank Morgan and Virginia Weider. Their first picture will be called "Henry Goes to Arizona." It is about a vaudeville actor who inherits a ranch.

Music for "Stanley and Livingstone" will cost about $125,000. This is because the studio is sending to Africa for authentic music of the tribes in that country.

RINGING BELLS

By Clayton Rand

ONCE upon a time there was a church with a fine bell in a high belfry. But to save a little expense the church fired the sexton and quit ringing the bell. Attendance at the church fell to nothing and a storm finally blew it away.

Once upon a time there was a merchant who used intelligent advertising in his local paper. But he got the smart idea that he'd save money, so he quit advertising—stopped ringing bells in print—and finally he took bankruptcy. The last we heard of him his Congressman was trying to get a soft spot for him on some government project.

GULLY FOR THE GULLIBLE.
(Gulfport Guide)

STATE tax collector, J. B. Gully, has announced his candidacy for re-election: "I have never spent more than a few hundred dollars in a state campaign and will not spend more this year. The most baneful influence known to our democratic form of government is the contribution of large sums of money by selfish interests to elect political tools to public office or defeat faithful public officers."

That's about as much bull as the old boy could pack into a few words. As far as we are concerned on the Mississippi Coast we'll do the little we can to retire our old friend into the pasture at Louisville. In fact, we'd like to see the office abolished altogether. He says he never spent more than a few dollars in a campaign, but he sure showed how to shake down the joints along the Coast for some fat fees.

DOROTHY DIX'S ADVICE TO YOUNG GIRLS.

(Vicksburg Post)

THE value of Dorothy Dix's writings lies in the fact that she doesn't go easy on her own sex. A woman of long experience in dealing with the ways of life, possessing an amazing talent for putting truisms in simple, forceful words that carry conviction, Dorothy Dix is one of the outstanding writers of the times. Here for example, is just a paragraph of advice to young girls, taken from her daily column, which can be taken to heart with profit by them.

"Girls always think that all that a boy cares about in a girl is whether she is good-looking, a good dancer and lively. They think that a boy doesn't notice if a girl tells lies, or is caty about other girls, or is selfish and greedy, but he does. Boys size a girl up very closely as to her morals and her principles, and among the things they particularly dislike in one is for her to be untruthful and insincere and a braggart. Conversely, the qualities that men all like in a woman is for her to be honest and simple and unaffected. And if you will notice, you will see that it is the girls men trust who get the worthwhile husbands."

DAY OF RECKONING.

(West Point Leader)

TWO years ago three eminent Mississippians combined their political strength in an effort to defeat Senator Pat Harrison. Two of these are now candidates for Governor, and the third will soon have to go before the voters to give an account of his stewardship. It is unnecessary to call names. The voters know—and few of them are inclined to forgive or forget.

PAT FOR PRESIDENT

By Clayton Rand

The name of Senator Pat Harrison is not the first among those being publicized into the presidency.

This editor is of the opinion that President Roosevelt expects to run again, and if the convention refuses to let the President pick the candidate he will bolt the party.

Just who his "fair-haired boy" is, of course, no one knows unless he does himself. It might be Harry Hopkins, Henry Wallace, John L. Lewis or Jim Farley, but his choice is Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Whatever is in the picture the Democratic party is split. Vice President Garner might hold it together, but his age is against him. There is Senator Clark, Secretary of State Hull and Indiana's McNutt, but the only Democrat who could possibly compromise the political extremes, who could at the same time be elected, is Senator Pat Harrison.

This scribe has covered most of the country in the past year, and has rubbed shoulders with all manner of men. He gathers the impression that there is, no Democrat in Washington as universally loved as our own Pat. He is much more than a favorite son, and in a bitter fight in the next convention, he may come out on top.

He was Franklin D. Roosevelt's first choice as a running mate in 1932 and who can tell what will happen in 1940?

That's Real Community

A little country girl called at a neighbor's house. "Mrs. Smith," she said, "mother wants to know if you won't please lend her a dozen eggs. She wants to put them under a hen."

The neighbor was surprised. "I didn't know you had a hen."

"We haven't. Jimmy has gone to borrow the hen from Mrs. Brown."

Governor of Mississippi Speaks Before Chamber of Commerce, Wichita, Kansas—Wants All States on Equal Agricultural and Economic Footing—No Discrimination.

Governor Hugh White of Mississippi, warning that the south and west must save themselves from being "beggars on the financial backsteps of the nation," urged the two sections to join forces against their "gorged and bloated regional ravagers."

As a second step toward "restoring to all states and regions of America a semblance of equal economic opportunity," White, in an address Friday night before Kansas state's Chamber of Commerce at Wichita, asked the governor of Kansas to speak in Jackson, the Mississippi capital.

White said: "May God speed the day when your state and mine, and your section and mine, will forget to snap at each other over the bones that are cast in the guise of agricultural handouts and combine our energies to demand our rightful place at the nation's economic table."

Says Political Aims One. "The political interests of your section and mine are practically identical. Both of us are largely rural and agrarian. Both of us suffer the same pressure from forces which have come to dominate the daily life of every individual among us. On the racks of bitter experience we should already have found that as long as we remain divided we will remain as beggars on the financial backsteps of the nation."

Denouncing the "imperialists who deem it necessary to keep down open revolt against our exploitation," the Mississippi said that if the west and south fail to combine forces "we shall convict ourselves of intellectual feebleness as we sit idly by to await the day for more violent solution."

Medical Roundup Of Pre-School Children This Friday, June 23

The Bay Central P. T. A. wishes to remind mothers of all pre-school children that the annual summer round-up will be held at the Bay Central School, Friday, June 23rd, from 9 until 5 o'clock.

All local doctors, and Dr. Charles Bloom and Dr. Kotz Allen of New Orleans will be in attendance. Mothers are asked especially to see that their children are given the diphtheria toxin anti-toxin at this time.

BLESSED EVENT FOR THE E. J. LACOSTE'S, JR.

A message from New Orleans Wednesday morning announced the birth of a daughter, at Touro Infirmary, to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, Jr., of Bay St. Louis. Weighing 7½ pounds the baby and mother are both reported doing well. Mrs. Lacoste before her marriage was Miss Laurin Gex, daughter of Mrs. Laurin Plunkett Gex and the late County Attorney Emile J. Gex.

CLARENCE MITCHELL HOME FROM CAMP.

Clarence J. Mitchell, L. S. U. student, who was in military camp at Fort Benning, Ga., for the summer, was forced to relinquish his post in order to undergo treatment for a throat affection which, physicians say, will yield to surgical treatment. Accordingly, he will be treated at a hospital at New Orleans. Clarence is the fine young son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Mitchell, of this city, the latter a cashier at the Hancock Bank of Bay St. Louis.

MRS. R. J. HOLZER DIES AT HER SUMMER HOME IN BAY CITY.

Had Come From New Orleans to Spend Warm Season at Beach Home—Death Sudden.

Funeral services for Mrs. Augusta Worner Holzer, 52 years old, wife of Rudolph J. Holzer, president of the Holzer Metal Works of New Orleans, were held in that city Sunday from a funeral home.

Mrs. Holzer had arrived Saturday from New Orleans to spend the heated season at her recently-acquired summer home on the beach at Cedar Point, known as the former Benvenuti dwelling, and was settling for an agreeable season of residence at the seashore, where she was suddenly stricken and passed away.

Funeral services were conducted at the auxiliary funeral home of Jacob Schoen and Son, followed by religious services at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church and interment in Hope Mausoleum.

Mrs. Holzer is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Garland Wood of St. Cloud, Fla., and Mrs. Herman Walldorf of Chattanooga, Tenn.; two sons, Rudolph J. Holzer, Jr., and Charles J. Holzer; three sisters, Mrs. Herman H. Hulse, Mrs. August Koschel and Mrs. Kendall Shaw of New Orleans, and two brothers, John Worner of New Orleans and Albert Worner of Covington.

She was a sister-in-law of J. E. V. Holzer, member of the firm of the Holzer Metal Works Company, who owns a summer home in Carroll avenue. The deceased was well and widely known and her passing removes a most estimable woman.

Mortuary services in Bay St. Louis were in charge of the Fahey Funeral Home firm.

Local Shrines to the Honor and Glory of The Mother of Jesus.

The custom of building holy shrines along the highways and byways of European countries has existed for centuries. The traveler may stop at various places and pray for guidance and safety or he may stop and pay tribute to the deity and saints.

In Bay St. Louis there are a number of rock shrines in gardens and yards of private residences, dedicated to the Holy Mother, and that inspires a greater veneration to the sainted one and inspires to greater devotion.

Mrs. Frank Martin recently had built in her garden at the family place of residence in Julia street a shrine in the shape of a grotto and therein is set a figure of Our Lady of Lourdes. Granite rocks set in cement and with the color of blue inserted in various places of cement joints make an attractive and tasty setting. This shrine was recently blessed and dedicated to pay homage to the holy virgin Mother. Setting under the shade of a tree with wide-spreading boughs and surrounded with garden plants it presents a most inviting appearance and lends the proper atmosphere.

Mrs. Claud Monti also has had completed similar shrine at the family residence corner Touline and Railroad avenue, that is seen from the street and passer-by view it with feeling of love and respect. Catholics passing by, it is noted, make the sign of the cross and no doubt give thought to prayer. The custom of a garden shrine has always existed, especially the grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes, and that is gaining wide spread attention is worthy of note. The two shrines are noted here because of their beauty and the thought and attention that created their building.

GARDEN CLUB PICNIC. The Pass Christian Garden Club held its annual picnic at DeSoto Park last Friday. Quite a variety of wild flowers were collected on the road and following an enjoyable lunch a class was held in botany under the leadership of Mrs. H. M. Rollins of Gulfport. Swimming and games were enjoyed by the children who attended with their parents.

COLORADO MAN, 81, OLDEST IN HOUSE.

JURY DROPS PROBE IN CASE OF RUDOLF S. HECHT AUTO ACCIDENT

The Harrison county grand jury adjourned Saturday without making specific report on the case of Rudolf S. Hecht, New Orleans banker involved in the automobile death of a 4-year-old boy, but observers said they believed the report exonerated Hecht.

The Hecht case was the last case scheduled to be considered by the jury this session.

The only report of the jury on a case resembling that in which Hecht was involved mentioned no names, but exonerated the driver of a car with which a 4-year-old boy's death had been connected.

District Attorney R. C. Cowan said the grand jury in the final report cleared Hecht, stating "we have failed to find sufficient evidence to prove any guilty knowledge" to justify an indictment.

Cowan said that although the charge was dropped, a subsequent grand jury was not prevented from investigating the case if new evidence was produced.

Hecht, chairman of the board of directors of the Hibernia National Bank and former president of the American Bankers Association, was arrested after Louis Joachim, 4, had suffered fatal injuries in an automobile accident in Biloxi, May 3.

Detained at Bay St. Louis en route from his Gulf Coast home to New Orleans after the boy had been struck by car, Hecht denied all knowledge of the accident.

Gaston Hewes, county prosecuting attorney had scheduled a hearing for Hecht this week but since the grand jury began its session Monday he said the case would be submitted to that body for consideration.

Observers, seeing in the jury's report the exoneration of the banker, said no case involving the death of a 4-year-old child or the charging of a motorist—except the Hecht-Joachim incident—had occurred here since the last term of the jury.

The report, signed by the foreman, C. H. Compton, follows:

"We had before us all the witnesses and have investigated to the best of our ability the case wherein it was alleged that the death of a 4-year-old child was caused by the negligence and reckless operation of an automobile failed to stop at the scene of the accident."

"But we have failed to find sufficient testimony to show any guilty knowledge on the part of the person alleged to have committed such an offense that would justify the grand jury in returning an indictment."

New Dealers who hope President will run again boom Murphy for second place on the ticket.

The lady—Ah, Yes! But I'm left-handed.

2. Subject to the other provisions herein contained, this lease shall remain in force for a term of twenty-five years from this date (hereinafter called "primary term") and, in event oil, gas or other minerals be found in or under said land, then said term of this lease is to be extended in force as to any sixteenth section or sections on or under which oil, gas or other minerals is found as long thereafter as either oil or gas is being produced from any well on such section or sections, or other minerals is produced or mined therefrom that Lessor is vested with authority under the Constitution and laws of Mississippi to lease said land.

"The taxi is a 'Unic' with oil lamps, right-hand drive, bulb-squeezing horn and hinged roof. It was discovered in a Los Angeles junk yard about six months ago. rentals) the sum of Seven Hundred and Seventy Dollars ($770.00) (hereinafter called "rental"), which shall cover the privilege of deferring commencement of drilling operations for a period of twelve (12) months. In like manner and upon like payments of tenders annually the commencement of drilling operations may be further deferred for successive periods of twelve (12) months each during the primary term. The payment or tender of rental may be made by the check or draft of Lessee mailed or delivered to said bank on or before such date of payment. If such bank (or any successor bank) shall fail, liquidate or be succeeded by another bank or for any reason fail or refuse to accept rental, Lessee shall not be held in default for failure to make such payment or tender of rental until thirty (30) days after Lessor shall deliver to Lessee a proper recordable instrument, naming another bank as agent to receive such payments or tenders. The down cash payment is consideration for this lease according to its terms and shall not be allocated as mere rental for a period of one year.

Lessee may at any time execute and deliver to Lessor or to the depository above named or place of record a release or releases covering any portion or portions of the above described premises, and thereby surrender this lease as to such portion or portions and be relieved of all obligations as to the acreage surrendered, and thereafter the rentals payable hereunder shall be reduced in the proportion that the acreage covered hereby is reduced by said release or releases. In this connection the above described premises shall be treated as comprising 7700 acres, whether there be more or less.

5. If prior to discovery of oil or gas on said land Lessee should drill a dry hole or holes thereon, or after discovery of oil or gas the production thereof should cease from any cause, this lease shall not terminate if Lessee commences additional drilling or reworking operations within sixty (60) days thereafter or (if it be within the primary term) commences or resumes the payment or tender of rentals on or before the rental paying date next ensuing after the expiration of three months from date of completion of dry hole or cessation of production. If at the expiration of the primary term oil, gas or other mineral is not being produced on said land and Lessee is then engaged in drilling or reworking operations thereon, the lease shall remain in force so long as operations are prosecuted with no cessation of more than thirty (30) consecutive days, and if they result in the production of oil, gas or other mineral so long thereafter as oil, gas or other mineral is produced from said land. In the event a well or wells producing oil or gas in paying quantities should be brought in on adjacent land and within one hundred fifty (150) feet of and draining the leased premises, Lessee agrees to drill such offset wells as a reasonably prudent operator would drill under the same or similar circumstances.

6. Lessee shall have the right at any time during or after the expiration of this lease to remove all property and fixtures placed by Lessee on said land, including the right to draw and remove all casing. When required by Lessor, Lessee will bury all pipe lines below ordinary plow depth, and no well shall be drilled within two hundred (200) feet of any residence or barn now on said land without Lessor's consent.

7. The rights of either party hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part and the provisions hereof shall extend to the heirs, successors and assigns, but no change of ownership of the land, including the land, rentals or royalties, however accomplished, shall operate to enlarge the obligations or diminish the rights of Lessee. No sale or assignment by Lessor shall be binding on Lessee until Lessee shall be furnished with a certified copy of recorded instrument evidencing same. In event of assignment of this lease as to a segregated portion of said land, the rentals payable hereunder shall be apportionable as between the several leasehold owners ratably according to the surface area of each, and default in rental payment by one shall not affect the rights of other leasehold owners hereunder.

If six or more parties become entitled to royalty hereunder, Lessee may withhold payment thereon until such time as a reasonable instrument executed by all such parties designating an agent to receive payment for all.

8. The breach by Lessee of any obligation arising hereunder shall not work a forfeiture or termination of this lease nor cause a termination or reversion of the estate created hereby nor be grounds for cancellation hereof in whole or in part save as herein expressly provided. If the obligation for reasonable development should require the drilling of a well or wells, Lessee shall have ninety (90) days after ultimate judicial ascertainment of the existence of such obligation within which to begin the drilling of a well, and the only penalty for failure to do so shall be the termination of this lease save as to 25 acres for each well being worked on and/or being drilled and/or producing oil or gas to be selected by Lessee so that each 25-acre tract will embrace one such well.

9. Lessor hereby warrants and agrees to defend the title to said land and agrees that Lessee at its option may discharge any tax, mortgage or other lien upon said land and in event Lessee does do, it shall be subrogated to such lien with the right to enforce same and apply rentals and royalties accruing without impairment of Lessee's hereunder toward satisfying same. Rights under the warranty in event of failure of title, it is agreed that if Lessor owns an interest in said land less than the entire fee simple estate, then the royalties and rentals to be paid Lessor shall be reduced proportionately.

Congressional Sidelights by Congressman Wm. M. Colmer

Pensions and Royalty

FRIDAY was a significant day in Washington, the nation's Capitol. Their Majesties, the King and Queen of England, the first to ever set foot upon American soil, visited the Capitol and received the Members of Congress in the rotunda of the Capitol. It was a momentous and historic occasion.

The King and Queen proved to be most gracious, and so did the Congressmen. It was a happy affair: all the way around, but the little Queen with her scintillating blue eyes and warm, charming smile captured the show at the Capitol just as she apparently did in most of the other places that they have visited. Obviously, the trip of the Royal couple into Canada and the United States was one of good-will, the Court courting the friendship of the Democracies of the western world. That they succeeded is generously conceded.

Increased Pensions for the Aged.

The House, membership which had come to the rotunda in a body to receive the King and Queen, or rather to be received by the King and Queen, then returned to the House floor for further consideration of the Social Security Bill which had been under consideration for the past several days. Shortly after Their Majesties had departed from the Capitol, the House took up for consideration the so-called Colmer amendment, which would have changed the method of allocation of funds from the present requirement of having the States to match the Federal Government's contribution dollar for dollar.

Under the provisions of this amendment the Federal Government would be required to put up $4.00 for every $1.00 that the state put up, up to the minimum obligation of the government, as now provided, of $20.00. For instance, if Mississippi were to put up $5.00 the Federal Government would put up $20.00, thus giving the aged needy a pension of $25.00 per month in place of the meagre pittance that they now receive.

The amendment was opposed by the Democratic Administration, and practically all of the Republicans opposed it. After the amendment was debated most of the afternoon, on a teller vote it was defeated 164 to 97. Evidently the House, as one Member put it, was too fresh from coats, and standing in the sun.

There is no question in our minds that if we could have gotten a record vote the amendment would have carried. At any rate, we feel that we have made some progress and will continue the fight.

No name was signed, nor was credit given in any part of the paper for the splendidly written article. It was written by a young man, who is familiar to many of the citizens of Bay St. Louis, and vividly expresses his appreciation to his parents, friends and teachers, who made his high school years so fruitful. The writer was Mr. William "Burley" Brown, graduate of the class of '39, and to him we would like to extend our congratulations on a job well done. Mr. Brown was on honor graduate, was affiliated with the paper and is an interesting and popular member of the senior class.

When He Grows up

SOME day this little fellow and others like him will compose the fourth generation to depend on the telephone in their daily activities. How much they will use the telephone is unpredictable, except that their demands will likely exceed today's.

And today's demands on the telephone system are large. The Southern Bell Telephone served 1,140,000 telephones in 1938, with 18,800 workers who received $26,600,000 in wages. It paid almost nine million dollars in taxes. Each day, an average of 9,582,798 local calls and 130,613 long distance calls were handled.

Telephone employees strive to give the kind of service their customers want. With this traditional spirit of service, backed by continuous scientific research, it is reasonable to expect that the Bell System

SHIRLEY TEMPLE STARS IN HER FIRST TECHNICOLOR FILM

"The Little Princess"—A Great Classic Marks her Fourth Year As Films' No. 1 Star.

Celebrating Shirley Temple's selection by motion picture audiences as the No. 1 star of the screen for the fourth consecutive year, Daryl F. Zanuck and 20th Century-Fox set out to produce Shirley's outstanding triumph. The result is to be seen in "The Little Princess" opening at the A. & G. Theater Sunday and Monday, in technicolor—a production which, according to enthusiastic Hollywood preview reports, is even greater than "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "In Old Chicago," "Kentucky" and "Jesse James," all from the 20th studios.

In response to thousands of requests from all over the world, the film presents Shirley Temple in a Technicolor production for the first time.

Adapted to the screen from Francis Hodgson Burnett's beloved classic of the same name, "The Little Princess" undoubtedly will be acclaimed not only Shirley's most memorable vehicle but also as one of the great pictures of all time. Certainly Producers Chief Zanuck has bent every effort toward that end, assigning outstanding creative talent to function on the picture and including in Shirley's supporting cast many of the most notable Hollywood favorites, headed by Richard Greene and Anita Louise.

The story of "The Little Princess" takes place in one of the most colorful periods of English history, when Victoria's long reign was drawing to a close and the Empire was engaged in the Boer War.

With London alive with excitement, flags flying from every building and marching Grenadiers thronging the streets, the opening of the film finds Shirley spending a last few hours with her father, Captain Crewe, who is about to embark for the Transvaal. Miss Minchin's school, where she is to stay while he is away.

In addition to Richard Greene and Anita Louise, Ian Hunter, Cesar Romero, Arthur Treacher, Mary Nash, Sybil Jason, Miles Mander and Marcia Mae Jones are also featured in the picture.

Mr. Zanuck selected Walter Lang to direct the film, with Gene Markey associate producer. The screen play was authored by Ethel Hill and Walter Ferris.

N. Y. WORLD'S FAIR "OVER THE TOP" AND IS OUT OF RED.

Pres. Grover A. Whalen Replies to Critics With Figures.

Grover A. Whalen, president of the New York World's Fair, says the $155,000,000 exposition, most expensive in history, "has already gone over the top."

Replying indirectly to critics who termed the fair a financial flop Whalen declared the show had made a "highly satisfactory" record.

"Naturally, we've had a few kinks to iron out, a few changes to make," he said, "but all that is done with now. The fair is firing on all cylinders."

He reported the total attendance through June 15 as 8,087,595, of which 5,852,251 were paid admissions.

Although the daily attendance has averaged less than 200,000 instead of 300,000 anticipated, a spokesman said the fair would not close "in the red."

He said it had drawn twice as many spectators as the Chicago Century of Progress Exposition during a similar period and predicted the final attendance would total 50 or 60 million instead of the slightly more than 40,000,000 needed to break even.

Fair officials said no reduction in the present 75 cents admission fee was planned.

A survey showed the average visitor remained on the grounds for 7 hours 13½ minutes and spent 92 cents beside the admission cost. Of this, 54¢-10¢ went for food and the remainder for souvenirs, rides and entertainment.

Visitors have downed 2,286,264 hot dogs—and 1,524,176 hamburgers.

POLITICAL PROMISES MEAN LITTLE.

The editor of the Vicksburg Evening Post speaks from the book when he says:

One of the most gratifying signs of the times politically in Mississippi, is that the old time "fire-and-Brimstone" orators leave the average voter cold. The average voter represents an appeal to his emotions rather than his intelligence. He wants to see the most.

Experiences have taught him that it takes something more than oratory and promises to "deliver the goods." He is more interested in calm reasoning and the disposition of a man to get along with others and get things done than he is the rabble-rouser who devotes most of his time to abusing his opponents and keeping things politically in turmoil.

In these days when most of the voters of the State read daily newspapers, listen to the radio, and thus keep themselves fully informed on governmental affairs, the political demagogue is finding it increasingly difficult to sway the political multitudes with high-sounding platitudes and impossible promises, and it is our guess that the candidate for office who relies on these old and antiquated methods of campaigning will find that he has been easily out-distanced by the candidate who presents his claims in a reasonable and common-sense way.

As previously noted in these columns, two of the candidates for Governor (Mike Conner and Billy Snider) have frankly refused to make extravagant promises of larger appropriations and lower taxes—and both have said frankly they were willing to give to the taxpayers of the State only what the taxpayers wanted to pay for.

It is to be strictly hoped that each of the other seven candidates for Governor will be equally honest and frank with the voters; that they will steadfastly refuse to make empty promises, and that mud-slinging will be strictly taboo.

An intelligent citizenship is entitled to a decent political campaign, and it is our guess that the candidate who stoops to mud-slinging will be severely rebuked in the approaching primaries.—West Point Leader.

HOW TO COOK AND BE COOL
—EVEN ON HOT DAYS—

Hotpoint

ELECTRIC RANGES

Smart women have learned that electricity, the truly modern fuel as used by Hotpoint for cooking, is the one way to cook and keep cool.

Electricity generates no excess heat. It is conducted through bottom of pans to food. None escapes around sides of utensils to raise kitchen temperature.

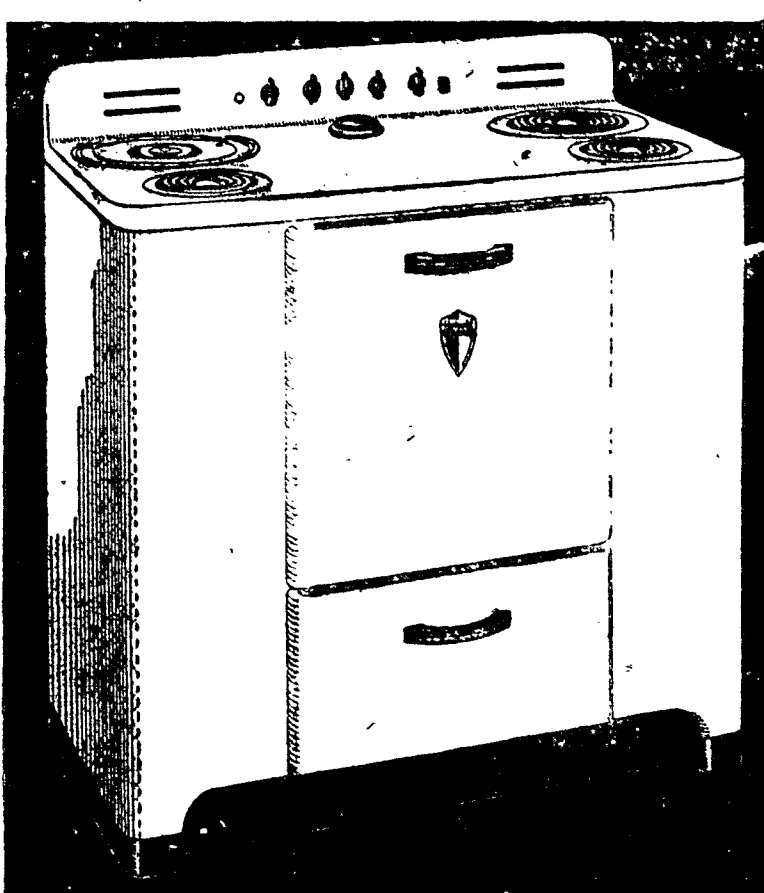

Heavy oven insulation keeps heat in the oven—and out of the kitchen. You can do a whole baking without noticeably heating the kitchen.

Hotpoint's Select-A-Heat Calrod uses electricity most efficiently. Starts cooking quickly on fast heat—finishes on a lower, thrifty heat without loss of cooking time.

Come in today and learn about this wonderful method for cooking and keeping cool during the summer.

RIDDLE: WHY IS A WOMAN LIKE A NEWSPAPER?

An enterprising Florida paper offered a year's subscription for the best answer to this question: "Why is a woman like a newspaper?"

Here are some answers:
"Because they are thinner now than they used to be."
"Because they carry the news wherever they go."
But this one won the subscription: "Because every man should have one and not run after his neighbors."

There is a volleyball court, tennis court and other attractions for the children. It will mean not only for amusement, but for their health as well, said Miss Armstrong.

Mrs. Marie E. Weber is now in charge of the playground and will exert every effort in her power to do everything possible to make it a success for the children, giving them every advantage possible. TO STAGE NEW
FEATURES AT FAIR
GROUNDS SUNDAYBay St. Louis Track To Witness Interesting Events
—Last Sunday's Results

Always on the lookout for something to attract and amuse the patrons of the Little Fair Grounds, the management will stage some interesting features on Sunday. Mr. Vic Lizana is getting his fast pacer "Sandy" in shape to enter a speed contest with "Star Hair"—great grandson of the famous pacer Dan Patch, and this will be a spectacle seldom seen on the coast—both horses harnessed to their racing gigs—some real speed will be exhibited. "Double Tricksey" owned by Willis Rhodes is being groomed to make an effort to take the honors from Dr. Goss' fast "Pearl." Paul Rocquert, well known jockey from the New Orleans race course is at Ed Ortle's stables conditioning the horses, which after a sojourn over here will be returned to the race track in New Orleans. Paul Rocquert has been a success on a great many tracks, and has ridden many horses to victory—so it will be a privilege to see this famed jockey perform at our Little Fair Grounds.

A soft ball diamond will soon be in condition to add to the pleasure and when completed will be used for games before the races start on Sunday afternoons, between our local teams and visiting teams.

The wires have been kept hot between the management of the Little Fair Grounds and Mr. Joe Viator, now sojourning at Hot Springs, and the outlook is good for a race between the undefeated horse of Mr. Viator "Liberty Oak" and "Rocky Prince" owned by Ed Ortle, which horse has not yet had a chance to show his ability as a competing racer.

It has been definitely decided and verified by wire that these two horses will meet Sunday in a feature race. This particular race has been anxiously anticipated by the public. It will be well worth witnessing.

Winners of last Sunday's races: Buster Brown, owner Sonny Roberts, jockey Sonny Roberts, vj. Brownie, owner Gaynell Gex, jockey Bobby Fayard; Tarzan, owner Hartwell Gex, jockey Garriga, won by Brownie.
